

WORLD OF RADIO #1050, produced September 6, 2000 by Glenn Hauser

- *Unexpected WOR time change immediately on WWCR 3215: UT Sat 0030 ex-0300
- *New Sept Continent of Media 0007 soon at <http://www.DXing.com> and already on R. for Peace International
- *UN Radio begins broadcasts to Africa via Merlin sites; see DXLD 0-107
- *UN Radio has been on RFPI since its inception; schedule
- *RFPI hopes to have 6970 back by mid-Sept; anniversary Fiesta on the Air UT Sept 17 0000-0400
- *AFRTS USB frequency observations: Sicily 10 MHz and Guam 13 MHz 24h; Iceland does not seem to be on yet, but Hawai'i
- *Encuentro DX schedule on Mexico's Radio Mil; see DXLD 0-104
- *R. Miskut, Nicaragua, on late with futbol
- *Bolivian government website lists stations by province, minus the frequencies:
<http://www.desarrollo.gov.bo/mde/transportes/comunicaciones/7.%20listado%20nal%20de%20oper.%20radiodifusion.html>
- *Source of Rede SomZoomSat program on Brazilian 60m station identified as R. Anhanguera
- *R. Educadora, Limeira, Brazil heard with spiritualist
- *NBC Namibia still carrying World Radio Network overnight on SW
- *R. Oman shifted two frequencies 9 kHz off
- *Israel going off DST Oct 5/6, or is it 22?
- *Israel Radio English broadcast confirmed two hours later; all stored or live on web
- *Arutz Sheva, Israel, has 5-day, 3-hour English on web,
<http://www.a7.org> - see program schedule in DXLD 0-107
- *V. of People of Kurdistan heard on two frequencies in Pennsylvania
- *V. of the Iraqi People clandestine heard on third transmitter
- *V. of Iran, clandestine via Moldova, changes frequency and so do bubble jammers
- *R. Tashkent, Uzbekistan heard on 21 MHz third harmonic
- *Falun Dafa Radio trying more 12 and 13 MHz frequencies, cat and mouse with Chicom jammers
- *In the middle of WOR ML, standard disclaimer, P O Box 1684, Enid OK 73702 USA or wghauser@hotmail.com - see our website
<https://www.angelfire.com/ok/worldofradio>
- *Thanks this week for financial support go to Bill Flynn
- *Japanese ham DXpedition to Spratly Islands Sept 12-16
- *Papua New Guinea celebrates independence day Sept 15-16
- *Radio Australia starting new 6-part series Globally Speaking: the politics of globalisation: <http://www.abc.net.au/global>
- *New Zealand on new 15 MHz frequency
- *National Association of Broadcasters in San Francisco Sept 20-23, with 1700 kHz IBOC digital demonstrator; LPFM/micropower/pirates plan to disrupt
- *Another new X-band station, from North Dakota
- *Denver jazz FM station converted to internet only <http://www.khih.com> but another FM adopts jazz format
- *Sept 9-17, Route 66 ham event offers certificate from 12 cities
- *Air Force 53rd Anniversary QSO Party Sept 16-17; see http://www.af.mil/news/Sep2000/n20000901_001338.html and <http://ourworld.compuserve.com/homepages/k5xs>
- *R. Free Chechnya new fall schedule
- *R. Rossii network changes to one 24h program, no timeshifted versions - see DXLD 0-107 for some frequencies
- *V. of Russia fall frequencies for N. America without annoying asterisks, plus additional frequency monitored
- *R. Yugoslavia says it is building new SW transmitters in Serbia; no mention of relays via Russia or elsewhere
- *R. Free London plans continuous one-week broadcast Sept 10-17; report to RFL@England.com
- *Farmers from Holland pirate plans return to SW Sept 10
- *RTE Ireland sports specials Sundays Sept 10 and 24 schedules, hurling and football; more in DXLD 0-103 and 104
- *BBC Last Night of the Proms special SW frequencies
- *BBC Radio 4 has impressive new season planned; see <http://www.bbc.co.uk/radio4/r4seas.shtml>
- *Propagation outlook from Boulder issued Sept 5; flux range 185-130-175
- *And so concludes another World of Radio, the 1,050th edition. I'm Glenn Hauser

###